

Does your Society want new members?

Does your Society have books or items to sell?

Here's the scoop....

The North Carolina Genealogical Society is hosting a special

SOCIETY NIGHT

during the National Genealogical Society Conference in Raleigh, NC
at the new Raleigh Convention Center

Wednesday, May 13, 2009, from 5:00–7:00 p.m.

Societies can rent tables for only $10 each (please bring your own tablecover)

WHAT'S SPECIAL?

- The event will be FREE to the public, not just to convention registrants. (Anticipated conference attendance is 1,500+)
- Society tables will be located on the mezzanine where visitors must pass by to attend FREE lectures and films that begin at 7:00 p.m. See the conference program for the descriptions of the exciting lineup which includes lectures on migration, digital tools, Ancestry.com records processing, and films about Melungeons and Irish emigration.
- Societies can sell their merchandise, books, calendars, etc., and keep all their profits.
- The vendor hall will be open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- All conference attendees will be encouraged to attend Society Night.
